

Organizer

I. Vocabulary

Verbs that express one's daily routine

Words used to describe fixing one's hair

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

Words for events

_____

_____

_____

_____

II. Grammar

1. To say that you do something to or for yourself, you use a _____ verb.

2. A verb of this type is lavarse. Its forms are:

(yo) _____ (nosotros) _____

(tú) _____ (vosotros) _____

(Ud., él, ella) _____ (Uds., ellos, ellas) _____

3. Would you use ser or estar for each of these purposes? Circle the right verb.

To talk about what a person or thing is or is like                      ser                      estar

To talk about how a person feels    ser                      estar

To talk about to whom something belongs                                      ser                      estar

To talk about what a thing is made of    ser                      estar

To talk about where a person or thing is located                              ser                      estar

To talk about where a person or thing is from                                      ser                      estar

4. The long forms of the possessive adjectives are:

_____

_____

_____